First Results

First results from evaluation suggest
- Users can effectively find mislabeled instances
- User interactions improve stability of the co-training algorithm
- Visualization enables discovery of insights about data and training

Results and Future Work

- Planned future work includes
  - Provenance visualizations for feature importance
  - Interactions to steer further aspects of the training process